Gen. Taylor Calumniated and denounced by Slavery.

Gen. Taylor having placed himself upon lofty and independent ground as a citizen of the Republic, is denounced, abused and repudiated in the Slave States.

At first we could not believe that Slavery would wage such a warfare against one of its own distinguished citizens.

But we see that neither virtue nor patriotism, sacrifices nor services, amount to anything in the South unless one is ready to throw away his rights and interests North of Mason and Dixon's Line.

The following Address of the Cass and Butler men of Clinton, Louisiana, to the Editor of the Whig, cannot fail to show that Gen. Taylor as we have justly contended, is worthy of the confidence and support of Northern Whigs.

Indeed it would be disgraceful for the North to desert a gallant Soldier and true Patriot of who is thus magnanimously showing for being an American in the Whig, in Jefferson and Madison.

We say nothing of the perversion and misrepresentation of Mr. Fillmore's sentiments and course. It is the violation of Slavery to assault and insult Northern States men.

TO THE PEOPLE.

We have a few words to say to you, and we shall say them with all sincerity and truth, and with the truly and serious warning which the grave importance of the subject demands, we hope that you will read them in the spirit of true Southern men.

story of Florida, approved by the said Governor on the 6th day of March, 1848, entitled "An act to prevent free negroes or mulattoes from residing in the territory, and for other purposes, beyond the same as hereby prescribed, and shall be held forth to no effect."

Fillmore voted to receive and act upon the resolution.

January 24th, 1848. Mr. Adams presented a resolution from the citizens of Massachusetts, asking that by law, no negro or colored man should be a citizen of the United States, and should be a citizen of the United States, and should be a citizen of the United States.

Fillmore voted to receive and act upon the resolution.

In truth we might continue these facts taken from the records of Congress, to an almost interminable length, but we will at present be content with the above, and leave the reader to draw his own conclusions.
